CORRECTION

Russian Nailiya Yulamanova did not run the fastest 5 km split in World Championships history for women, as was reported in DRR 9:34. Yulamanova ran 16:31 from 30 to 35 km, while Kenyan Catherine Ndereba clocked a considerably quicker 15:58 from 35 to 40 km in the 2003 World Championships in Paris. Ndereba went on to win that race, her first of two world marathon titles.
